Well, I feel good for reaching out, but even better that she said no.

Thanks Jay,

I'm actually away from the office in Colorado. Sorry, catch you next time.

Sally

Sally,

Several representatives from WaterGen, the Israeli company we are finalizing a CRADA with related to atmospheric water generation, is visiting this Thursday afternoon/Friday morning. I know you were involved in some of the early discussions, but dropped off the calls since June. I can send you an invite to the meetings if you like (reps from NRMRL, Homeland, and SSWR are involved).
